

WELCOME!

Every year, Outdoors for All is lucky enough to have some of the most amazing summer staff, interns and volunteers. Our 2010 summer is no exception!

This summer we have over 16 part-time dedicated individuals who will be helping deliver all of our amazing programs to individuals with disability.

Each individual comes to us to fill vital roles in providing our summer programs. Some of the programs that help Outdoors for All bring these amazing staff positions include:

- TIPS (Teens in Public Service)
- Federal Work Study Staff
- Bellevue Community College Venture Program Internship
- YES! (Youth Engaged in Service)
- Outdoors for All Internships
- Outdoors for All Volunteers

So if you see one of our summer staff out at an activity, make sure to say hi and thank them for all the amazing things they do for our organization!

Check out some of our new seasonal staff and short bios. Some of our staff/interns/volunteers without bios also include:

- Lead Camp Counselor: Sara Ramsay
- Lead Camp Counselor: Kate Driscoll
- Camp Counselor: Greg Burns
- Camp Counselor: Kris Christensen
- Work Study Counselor: Kjersti Gedde
- Work Study Counselor: Mary Clark
- YES! Volunteer: Jennifer Fischer
- YES! Volunteer: Nathan Chin
- Outdoors for All Volunteer: Cooper Gillen

CHRIS TRINH
TIPS

Chris Trinh is a sophomore at The Northwest School. This is his first summer with TIPS and Outdoors for All, and he is extremely excited to be working with the campers. Chris really enjoys being outdoor and staying active. He is currently a member of Small Fryz Ultimate team, and was a volunteer coach for Seattle Waldorf High School Ultimate Frisbee. Some of his favorite outdoor activities are camping, hiking, and running. At the end of the summer, Chris will be volunteering as a Counselor In Training (CIT) for Pacific Science Center. Overall, he is just looking forward to a summer of fun.

CARRIE ALLEN
WORK STUDY

Carrie grew up in Longview, WA and is currently going to school at Seattle Pacific University. In the spring of 2011 she will graduate with an elementary education certification and a Family and Consumer Sciences major. Carrie has always loved the outdoors and tries to spend as much time as possible learning new activities and encouraging others to join in on the fun! The main activities she enjoys on a regular basis are: rock climbing, cycling, snowboarding, and surfing. Her passion is working with children and inviting everyone to live life to its fullest potential. With her new home being a sailboat, the possibilities are now endless.

JORDIE WIERENGA
Outdoors for All Intern

Jordie Wierenga is a recent graduate of Kentwood High School in Covington, Washington. She has been volunteering with Outdoors for All for four years. Her experiences have inspired her to pursue a career as an autism specialist. She will attend GRCC this fall and work towards a major in child psychology with a minor in occupational therapy.

ZACHARY PURCELL
BELLEVUE CC INTERN

Zachary Purcell is currently a student at Bellevue College. In addition to being an intern at Outdoors for All, he has also been a participant in a number of Outdoors for All programs over the years and was named outstanding student in Skiforall when he was 12 years old. He has a special interest in hiking, cycling and in working with kids.

CALEB RICHMOND
WORK STUDY

Caleb is a born and bred King County, Washington native who was raised on a small farm in Woodinville with acres of forest at his fingertips. He is now an Ecology major at Seattle Pacific University, graduating in June 2011, who spends his time studying animals and plants both indoors and out. His favorite hobbies include bird watching, long walks in the amazing Seattle Parks, hiking the foothills, singing and photography. He is planning on a career in zookeeping, conservation and sustainability education and loves working with Outdoors for All to bring nature to everyone.

MARIANNA WILSON
WORK STUDY

Marianna is a Work Study student from Seattle Pacific University and has been with Outdoors For All since September of 2009. In the fall of 2011 she will graduate with a Music Education Degree and hopes to become a middle school or high school choir teacher. Marianna enjoys hiking, kayaking, biking, both water skiing and downhill skiing and camping. In addition to her love for the outdoors Marianna can also be found on the stage, singing and acting with various community theater groups. In her spare time this summer Marianna is busy planning her summer 2011 wedding and spending lots of time with her fiancé Brad.

JOSHUA SCHAUB
Outdoors for All Intern

Joshua Schaub is an outdoor enthusiast whose training in marriage and family therapy contributes to his love for guiding others to outdoor activities that are both enjoyable and constructive. Being outdoors and sharing the experience with friends is the key motivation to his work with Outdoors for All, and he loves working with individuals to discover the activities that they will enjoy. A native of Seattle, Joshua has explored Southern California and Texas for college and Colorado for the hiking and winter sports. Recently, he and his wife have begun rock climbing, bicycling, and hiking in Washington.

MARY ALLAIN
Outdoors for All Intern

Mary Allain was born and raised in Bellevue, Washington. She was introduced to the great outdoors at an early age hiking and camping with her family through the beautiful Cascade Mountains. After graduating with honors from Bellevue High School in 2008, Mary has continued to excel in academics at Whitman College located in Walla Walla, WA. Upon finished her second year at Whitman, Mary has declared sociology as her major. As a summer intern for Outdoors for All, Mary is able to pursue many of her passions simultaneously; she loves the outdoors, spending time with kids, and helping others.

THANK YOU!
